“Black Nationalism is the only real solution for Black People in the United States.”

In the mid 1970s, I wrote an article on “The Press” for The People’s Newsletter. Because of what I had already learned more than 30 years ago, the sinister role of the media in the lead up to the invasion of Iraq did not surprise me. Sadly, neither did the mindless response of every day people in the United States surprise me. I understood 30 years ago and I understand now that people in the United States are some of the most ignorant and closed minded people a well developed person might have the displeasure of running into. I also understood then and understand now why Americans are as ignorant and closed minded as they are.

The Press: Dr. Jekyll Is Hyding

In the 1770s a social, economic and political relationship had developed between Great Britain and her American colonies which established Great Britain as a dominant tyrannical force. As a result, many of the colonial people began developing feelings of resentment toward the mother country (Great Britain). As time passed they tired of the constant tyranny of King George to the point where the most politically aware among them felt that something should be done to stop that tyranny for once and for all. These men were in favor of opposing tyranny with arms if necessary, but in order to do this effectively they had to overcome a major obstacle. They knew that most of the colonial people would sympathize with their cause because it was a just cause, but they also realized that this sympathy would not develop into actual open support unless some vehicle was used to popularize their just cause on a mass level.

They needed a vehicle which would transport similar ideas to persons in all parts of the colony at the most opportune times. This vehicle would be used to champion the cause of resisting tyranny and make the people fond of those who resist tyranny and deathly critical of all others. In short, they needed a vehicle which would render the masses of the people mentally free of Great Britain. This vehicle was the press (news media).

The Revolutionary War period adorned the press with an esteem and trust from the people which few other institutions in America could match. It was the standard bearer of those who struggled against oppression. It was a call for liberty from those who were the victims of tyranny. It would be the guardian of democracy and freedom which all people crave for because it would always be a tool for the people used by the people to the benefit of the people. When all other attempts at redress failed, one would rest assured that he could report his story to the press and have it read throughout the country by interested persons who would adopt his cause and make Justice stand.

Two hundred years later a social, economic and political system has been established in America which corrupts the entire known world. It is a system which represents a few individuals who are not concerned with the benefit of mankind but with the benefit of certain kinds of men. It is a system which places little, if any, value on terms like democracy, freedom and justice, but champions instead the quest for profits, power and the satisfaction of all types of negative aggressions. It is a system which is inherently tyrannical and it operates beyond the scope and understanding of most people because it does not want its true colors revealed to the masses of the people. It intends instead to deceive the people by brainwashing them into thinking that self-preservation is the first law of Nature and that unemployment is necessary in any advanced economic structure. It intends to rid the people of their love for real values like Freedom, Respect and Justice by inserting a desire for material objects such as homes and cars in their places. It intends to render people politically obtuse (ignorant) by focussing their attention on such intellectual teasers as astrology, junk literature and sensational motion pictures, and denying them access to any quality which might bring about or stimulate any positive mental activity. It intends to rid the people of their creative genius while simultaneously conditioning the people to the virtues of "Do as you are instructed to do". In short, this system intends to scientifically completely enslave more than 99% of the known world's human population in order to insure that the less than one percent of the population which it represents can enjoy the fruit of their thievery, murder and deceit without having to worry about a destructive reaction from the people they mercilessly victimize. And what are they already using to accomplish this end? The PRESS (media)!!!

Since the 1770s the same press which was hailed as the guardian of a democratic people has been usurped and expanded by that group of individuals which is threatened by democracy. That group has since that time changed the press from a savior of the people to a threat to the people. That group which intends to enslave humanity has used money and force to eliminate the free press and has replaced it with a controlled written, oral and visual communications network which does not have as its purpose the telling of the truth. Its purpose is not to report the news but to dictate the selfish views of the new King Georges...

Power Quotes

"So-called African-Americans, like white people in general, have become consumers of status quo opinions and perspectives."

"Whispers go unheard amidst the noises of war, genocide and poverty."

"Individuals, and groups of people, always end up where their decisions take them."

"Our potential for greatness (Black Power) is exceeded only by Our attraction to mediocrity (white power)."

"When racial bias is a factor and political inequality exists, doing something is not as risky as doing nothing."

"Individuals who attempt to institutionalize measures that are good for the masses are undermined by those in power."

"Those who settle for immediate gratification cannot compete with long range planners and doers."

"White power is excellent at artificially expanding the downward mobility of Black People."
